The session of Dudley Institute was opened Monday morning with forty-three scholars in attendance.

Capt. W. G. Thompson has been appointed Quartermaster at the Arsenal by Adjutant General Castleman.

The cool weather has given the coal trade a boom. The black diamonds are going off rapidly at 16 cents a bushel.

The river is no longer navigable on account of low water, and the price of coal went up two cents on the bushel Tuesday.

Elder George Darsie returned home yesterday from his trip to Colorado and will occupy his pulpit at the Christian Church as usual to-morrow morning and evening.

Tuesday evening next is the regular monthly communication of Frankfort Chapter, No. 3, at which time the annual election of officers will be held, and a full attendance of the Companions is desired.

On Monday Gov. Knott fixed Friday, October 12th, as the day for the execution of Ellis Craft, who was convicted at Grayson last February of the murder of the Gibbons children at Ashland two years ago.

Miss Frances E. Willard delivered two splendid temperance lectures at the Methodist Church Sunday to large audiences, and succeeded in organizing a branch of the Women's Christian Temperance Union in this city.

A horse is badly needed for the hook and ladder truck of the Fire Department. It is an imposition on the volunteer force who now run it to ask them to pull it over to the farthest part of South Frankfort when a fire occurs over there. One horse can pull it anywhere and one should be provided.

On Monday morning the roof of the Eclectic Institute Building, in South Frankfort, took fire from falling sparks from a chimney and was considerably damaged. The Fire Department was called out, but threw no water, the flames being extinguished with buckets. The opening of the school had to be postponed on account of it.

The following is the score of the Spring Hill clay pigeon shoot, Friday afternoon of last week:

On Tuesday the examining trial of Dick Bohannon, charged with shooting Frank Kennedy with intent to kill was called, when he waived a trial and gave bond to appear at the Circuit Court, which meets the third Monday in next month. Kennedy is able to be out again.

The concert at the White Hall clothing house last night was first class, but the one they will give to-night will be a stunner. Waxey's Lexington Sextette will again furnish the music, and their singing will eclipse any Wizard Oil troupe in the country. Go early and secure a seat on the lumber pile in front of the City Hall.

Mr. John Cain, an experienced miller, has established a new grist mill on the river at the foot of Main street, South Frankfort, and advertises in this issue that he will do custom grinding on Tuesday and Friday of each week, as well as keep a good article of meal constantly on hand. Farmers could not do better than to give him a call, as he will deal fairly and squarely with everyone.
